

September 2023 Prayer Targets

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion", says my soul, "therefore I will hope in Him." Lamentations 3:22-24

The Body of Christ:

- Prayer for churches to move forward in love across denominational lines to fulfill Christ's kingdom agenda. Praise for opportunities to do so through organizations such as Serve INC and Love INC and multi-church worship nights in our communities.
- Pray that the Body of Christ would uphold and prioritize God's Word over the voices of the culture and media.
- Pray for God to have mercy on those struggling with addiction to drugs, marijuana, fentanyl, and alcohol, etc. Prayers that God would break them free from their slavery to sin and addiction.
- Pray for student ministries for God's favor for open doors, wisdom for outreach events and development of discipleship relationships. Pray that students who feel hopeless, purposeless and struggle with suicidal ideation would be drawn to a ministry and seek help.

Our Communities and Nation:

- Pray for those across the nation affected by hurricanes, flooding and wildfires. Prayer for any who have to evacuate, for God's provision for their needs.
- Pray for our leaders at the local, state and federal level, that they will have wisdom and integrity that God would open their eyes to His perspective for decision making and His Word would be their guide.
- Pray for teachers and support staff to have wisdom, creativity, discernment and protection as they work with students and families. Pray that God will give students peace, courage and protection as they begin a new year of classes.
- Pray that the Oregon Ag Prayer breakfast and message from evangelist Mike Silva on the evening before the breakfast would have an evangelistic impact and bear fruit. More information here.

The Fall 2023 Study: "Amos: An Invitation to the Good Life", by Jennifer Rothschild, a 8-session study of Amos begins the week of September 18th. Registration for bible study classes is open now!
