

March 2023 Prayer Targets

...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:14

The Body of Christ:

- For increased leadership development of women in the church to grow to become faithful mentors equipped with the knowledge of God's Word. Pray for women preparing to disciple and encourage other women in spiritual disciplines. As God calls home His faithful, necessary to have the next generation carry on the mantle of mentorship.
- For churches in transition, that leadership will seek God's direction for their congregation. Pray for Sweet Home Evangelical in their search for a new pastor.
- Pray for discernment for churches in examining any trending theological ideas that may be introduced, being careful to examine if it agrees with the truth of the Word of God.
- Lift up the congregation of Fir Lawn Lutheran in Sweet Home, whose church building was burned in a recent fire.

Our Nation & Communities:

- Pray for revival that produces repentance and turns hearts to Christ. May revival continue to spread through college campuses, churches and throughout the world. Pray for discipleship for those who come to Christ as new believers.
- Pray for the protection of youth and parents from the pressures that come from social media. May we focus on God's approval and be content with His provision of blessings.
- Pray for those involved in drug culture, addicted to drugs, that the Lord would set them free from captivity and help them to find true freedom in Jesus.
- Protection for our Police Chiefs, County Sheriffs & Deputies, State Police and First Responders. Pray for their reliance upon God for decisions and healthy stress relief.
- Safety for those traveling during Spring Break. Refreshment for teachers and staff.

Mid-Valley Women of Christ:

- Prayer for preparations for MVWC Spring Praise & Worship Event on March 17th at 7:00PM at Life Community Church in Corvallis.
- Pray Holy Spirit anointing for our speaker Kelly Minter as she prepares a message to share and for the community worship band, leader Chris Spivey and musicians.
- Pray that this event will bless and encourage many women through the message and worship. Pray for women's hearts to be receptive to God's Spirit. Protection for those traveling to the event.
- Pray for God's grace for a generous love offering.
